Notes on tables 3.B.1.1 to 3.B.1.12

Belgium: Decisions involving the hospitalisation of mentally ill offenders or the deferral (suspension) of the pronouncement of a sentence are not included in the figures for 1990-1993.

Finland: Changes in recording convictions may have affected counts of multiple offences.

a) The figures for 1994 and 1995 are not indicated because of amnesties occurring in those years. Convictions may now be undercounted, due to changes in recording rules after 1993.

b) In cases of assault (and contrary to police statistics, see table 1.B.1.4, convictions are also counted if the victim was unable to work for up to 8 days.

Germany: Figures for 1990-1994 relate to the former Federal Republic and West Berlin. The figures for 1995 and 1996 relate to the former Federal Republic and the whole of Berlin.

Switzerland: Persons under 18 years of age are not included.
